Developing the creative capacity of Calderdale

FREE 1:1 DEVELOPMENT SESSIONS

Are you a creative company or sole trader?

Are you looking for individual support to help you develop your business?

A 509 Arts – Landlines and Watermarks Legacy Programme

Throughout 2018 509 Arts are able to offer creative businesses and sole traders in Calderdale a limited number of free 1:1 sessions that focus on capacity building and business planning.

You may need some space and time to rethink the way you do business, to take a new direction or address a particular concern, rethink your marketing or secure additional resources. We are offering free advice and consultancy to help you unlock your thinking and make the next step.

509 Arts has a wealth of experience and expertise in strategic thinking within the cultural sector and has advised creative businesses large and small in their development and organisational direction. You will find our informed and uncluttered approach accessible and valuable and we will provide you with a road map to support your development and growth.

About Transitions

Transitions provides workshops, discussions and presentations for arts organisations, individual artists and people working with the communities of Calderdale.

Funded by the Community Foundation for Calderdale, Transitions takes place across the Calder Valley in 2018 and explores issues relevant to anyone working in the cultural sector.

Transitions builds on 509 Arts' Landlines and Watermarks programme that explored the impact of the devastating floods of 2015 (www.landlinesandwatermarks.org).

About 509 Arts

Shipley-based 509 Arts has over 20 years experience in strategic arts planning and creative production.

We have a strong track record in many contexts: local to national research and strategy development and direct support for individual organisations on all elements of planning and delivery. Our clients have included Arts Council England, the National Theatre, Graeae Theatre, the Southbank Centre, national and regional festivals, access organisations, local authorities and community organisations.

If, as a sole trader, you would prefer to share a session this can be accommodated (no more than four sharing) – please contact us to discuss further.
